THE LITTLE ADVENTURES® STORY

The Tale of Our Origin

Little Adventures® started in 2002 when two moms discovered the lack of high quality, affordable dress-ups available for their children. Jenny Harrison (mother of 10) and Heather Granata (mother of 3) decided to start their own “little adventure” by sewing and selling dress-ups at local craft fairs. It didn’t take long to realize that sometimes a little adventure can become a life changing big adventure!

During their first year in business Jenny and Heather sewed over 2,000 dress-ups in Jenny’s basement. “The kids played and we laughed until we were deliriously tired,” Jenny recalls. This was the start of wonderful memories and an adventure that will never be forgotten.

When Jenny and Heather are asked about the growth and success of Little Adventures® they reply, “We have created a successful business that allows us to be part of our children’s daily little adventures, bring joy and imagination to children all over the world, and help financially support our families as well as those of our employees. To top it off, we get to dress up like princesses and experience the joy of being a part of our children’s lives. What more could any mom ask for?”

THE LITTLE ADVENTURES® PROMISE

At Little Adventures®, our guarantee extends to many awesome things, beginning with our brilliantly-sewn dresses.

Our dresses feature a variety of fullness options like organza overskirts, hip puffs, and peplums. Our stretch velvet is soft and accommodates a variety of sizes.

Many of our dresses feature wrapped seams on the inside of the dress to prevent putting itchy or uncomfortable fabric against the child's skin. Bodices adorned with fancy trims and fabrics add to the elegance of the dress.

Our apparel-grade quality fabrics and construction, including finished seams and edges, provide optimum comfort to the child.

Our dresses are made using soft, durable, and snag resistant fabrics, keeping our dress-ups looking new at all times.
